

Greetings Ron Sarchian,

Congratulations. You have been selected by the Board of Directors of the Martial Arts History Museum to receive the coveted Martial Arts History Museum Honor Award. You are joining a select group of individuals nominated directly by the Martial Arts History Museum because of your great contributions to the martial arts through your excellence and high standards.

The Museum Honor Awards was conceived by the Martial Arts History Museum to honor and pay tribute to those key individuals that have excelled above and beyond all expectations and have helped perpetuate the martial arts in a positive way. It is bestowed to those magnificent individuals, both practitioners and promoters, who have made a dramatic impact within the martial arts community. Our goal is to honor a unique group of individuals who have contributed greatly to the martial arts through their own practice or through their deeds. Being recognized for an individual's accomplishments, especially by the Museum, is indeed a great honor.

The Honor Awards banquet ceremony is planned for September 7, 2013 at the Holiday Inn Media Center in Burbank, Ca. The Honoree must be present in order to receive their Honor Award and certificate of inclusion. Cost of the dinner ceremony is $125.00, however if five students, friends or sponsors purchase their tickets on your behalf, your ceremony ticket is complimentary. All proceeds go directly to the Museum.

Giving recognition is something that we strongly believe in. Many people such as yourself have made great accomplishments and it's important especially from our Martial Arts History Museum, that you are honored.

Please reply to accept this honor by:

- 1) Emailing your full contact information to MAmuseum@gmail.com
- 2) Include your full name and rank in the martial arts.

DEADLINE Acceptance must be submitted by May 1, 2013. For additional information, please visit the Honor Awards website at www.Museumhonorawards.com. Note: if you have a group to sponsor you with five seats, you will need them to all sign up at the same time.
